

Austin Pastel Society

Meeting Minutes-October 25, 2015

Meeting Opening

The regular meeting of the Austin Pastel Society at Marie Callendar's was called to order at 4:05PM on October 25, 2015 by President Rae Andrews.

Greeting - No new members present.

The program for today is Maria Lyle's floral demonstration. An excellent handout related Maria Lyle's background, gallery locations, photos of her and her work, as well as the APS 2015-2016 Meeting Schedule through June of 2016. She works very quickly producing beautiful images. The revised APS website has photos of her demonstration session.

Membership chairman Anita Dsouza offers a happy hour November 13th, Friday, with actual place to be determined; email information will be sent to members.

Treasurer Britta Hertog gave the Treasurer's Report:

Secretary Geneva Johnson reviewed last month minutes.

Librarian Michele Grant updated Video and DVD materials.

Door Prize Chairman Jan Weaver awarded Jane Copland a book on Terry Ludwig pastels.

OLD Business - Vicki Brevell gave update on Round Rock Art Space. Space will be used for any art, not just group shows.

NEW Business - Janis Langley (Vice President) related information about private tour of the Frank Reaugh exhibit at the Ransom Center, UT campus. Date is November 22 for at least 10 people for docent.

Janis Langley announced the date of December 13, 2015 for the Christmas party and gift exchange. She then highlighted some of the 2016 APS Program. January will be Rae Andrews demonstrating; February will be Juanette Cueva demonstration; March 15 and 16 will be Marla Bagetta's Workshop at Apache Shores. There was an earlier handout (email) about the workshop particulars. Discussion continued about a September mini workshop with Linda Dulandre.

Webmaster-in-training is David Kordecki.

The North Hills Gallery "Autumn Beauty" show will have First Place, Second Place and Third Place winners with 2 Honorable Mention prizes awarded in November.

Sonia Kever's paintings of the homeless currently hang at City Hall.

Business was concluded at 4:44PM; Maria Lyle began her demonstration.

Respectfully submitted, Geneva Johnson, secretary
